

Subject : English 'A'

Unit 1 : Honest little boy

Reading Pg #6, 7, 8

Words Meanings

hedge	جھاڑیاں	pleasure	خوشی
naughty	شرارتی	Sensible	سمجھدار
Carefully	احتیاط سے	pocket	جیب
Brown eggs	پھورے انڈے	Silly	لے و قوف
ashamed	شرمندہ ہوا	Sweets	مٹھائیاں

Words
Naughty

Sentences

He is a very naughty <sup>boy.</sup> ~~boy.~~

Sweets

He likes sweets.

Hedge

Asim found the eggs in a hedge.

Pocket

He has ten rupees in his pocket.

Ashamed

Ali was ashamed of his bad behaviour.

[A] Answer the questions.

1. What did Asim find when he was coming home from school? skip
2. What thought came into Asim's mind when he took the eggs into his hands.
3. Explain the meaning of the sentence: 'He, Asim, himself would know.'
4. Why did Asim go to the farm to see Mrs. Zahid? ✓
5. Why did Asim not want to take money from her mother?
6. What did Asim do with the money he received from his mother?
7. What did Asim feel pleased about?

[B] Change the statements into questions.

★ He heard a noise in the hedge.

Did he hear a noise in the hedge?

1. He looked at the eggs.
2. A horrid little thought came into his mind.
3. That would be fifteen rupees altogether.
4. He turned right round and went to the farm.
5. He went off with the three brown eggs.
6. He went home and found his mother in the garden.

[C] Most words that end in 'ly' are adverbs and some are adjectives too. Underline the adverbs.

1. Out scuttled a hen, clucking angrily.
2. He took them carefully in his hands.
3. He had very nearly stolen them.
4. But really I have so many eggs just now.
5. Look at these lonely eggs.
6. Don't be silly.

Remember that some adjectives also end in 'ly' so function is more important than form.

[D] Learn the modal (auxiliary) verbs used in the lesson.

Can, could, will/shall/ 'll, would, may, might, must, should, had better
Look up the meanings of these words in your dictionary.

[E] After modal (auxiliary) verbs we normally use the infinitive without 'to' of other verbs. Use the correct form of the verb to fill in the blanks.

1. Old Mr. Zafar would gives him fifteen rupees. (to give, gives, give)
2. He would buy that top. (buy, buys, bought)
3. Nobody would know. (knows, knew, know)
4. I should always know. (knowing, know, known)
5. I had better not to have them. (have, has, to have)
6. I can give them to you. (gives, give, to give)
7. You must take them to the farm. (took, take, taken)
8. I'll take the eggs to Mrs. Zahid. (to take, taking, take)

[F] Copy and use punctuation.

Why its asim she said smiling what do you want dear I found these eggs in hedge mrs zahid said asim a hen had been laying away so i brought them to y

[G] Write the full form of these contractions.

I'd better

I would better

They're

They are

Couldn't

Could not

You'd

You would

Here's

Here is

I'll

I will 20/3